

Author Full Name : Marie WinslowReceived Date : 02/21/2025 07:26 AMComments Received :

I am opposed to the change in passport applications requiring only two genders. This is an unnecessary change, and an obvious punitive measure aimed at the fragile transgender community. The State Department has permitted the use of "X" as a gender marker without incident. I suspect this change is the result of Elon Musk's rejection of his transgender daughter. He may want to punish transgender people, but the rest of us don't. Just exactly how much Government control did his campaign contribution buy?