

Author Full Name : Tristan Metherell

Received Date : 02/21/2025 08:05 AM

Comments Received :

The legality of changing names and gender markers is a crucial issue for all trans and non-binary identities. Affirming services like passport changes play a large role in the personal well-being of these individuals, and leads to a more positive self-view as well as makes traveling a much safer experience for trans people. This is a human right and absolutely should not be stripped from the American people.