

Author Full Name : Jess Fogarty

Received Date : 02/21/2025 08:35 AM

Comments Received :

As a cis-woman and very frequent traveler due to my job, I cannot underscore the importance of easing the ability to make changes to a passport. This is a protection that is essential for all American citizens, regardless of gender expression. There is absolutely no harm in continuing to support our most vulnerable communities, especially not under the guise of trying to protect cis-women.