

Author Full Name : Joseph Schipp

Received Date : 02/21/2025 09:10 AM

Comments Received :

If an American wants to be listed as a woman on her passport, or as a man on his I am not bothered at all by that and I think this is massive government overreach. I think spending any time at all telling people how or how they can't identify is a massive waste of government time. What happened to small government that doesn't bother people?