This is the United States of America. The land of the free. If someone want to change their name to Cat Face, that's allowed because we are supposed to be FREE from other people's intolerance. You can't force your beliefs on other people in this country by decree of the fucking CONSTITUTION. The hateful bigots turning this country into a dictatorship should not be allowed to limit the ability to obtain a correct passport based on hate, intolerance, and misinformation. Remember your oath to the Constitution and dedicate your performance to preserving freedom for all Americans. Please think hard about removing freedom from any group of people. Once they start rolling back freedom, it's a slippery slope to becoming slaves to the billionaires.
