

Author Full Name : Colm Duffy

Received Date : 02/21/2025 09:49 AM

Comments Received :

I think individuals should be given the right to change their gender signifier on their passport given they provide evidence that they are living as a gender that is different then the one on their passport for a meaningful period of time. This is a very common sense measure taking by many other countries to make their trans citizens more comfortable