

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 09:44 AM

Comments Received :

As a transgender American, I have the right to travel safely. To not allow us to carry documentation that follows the gender we live as every day, and many of us pass as, is to create an environment that is unsafe for travel. When our documentation does not match up to other documents we have or the gender/sex we appear to be, it can cause discrimination, violence, undue strip searches, denial of entry, and more.