

Author Full Name : Alex Garcia

Received Date : 02/21/2025 10:59 AM

Comments Received :

The new definitions listed in the recent presidential executive order are very limiting and dangerous to American travelers. A mismatched gender identifier could cause the traveler to be abused or not allowed lodging, health care, and misc services when traveling abroad. A passport's sole purpose is to prove the identity and citizenship of the person. A gender identifier is not vital to either of those.