

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/21/2025 10:48 AMComments Received :

I think the proposed changes to our current passport policy are extraordinarily wasteful all in the aim of bigotry. Our current passport rules allow for all individuals to be properly represented and pose no risk to any citizen or security effort. In fact allowing individuals to properly identify enhances overall security, safety and efficiency during travel. These changes provide no value other than discrimination against a group of individuals which is surely not the goal of passport and travel policies.