

Author Full Name : Natalie GentryReceived Date : 02/21/2025 11:06 AMComments Received :

Targeting trans and non-binary people is a juvenile and dangerous tactic of creating a scapegoat to distract the public from their economic woes. It is incredibly unfair and unjust to make the process of receiving or renewing their passports so difficult. Many trans people no longer look like their assigned gender at birth, leading to more confusion when it comes to their passports. This policy is preventing people from having passports at all, which is unjust and unfair.