

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 11:21 AM

Comments Received :

The proposed change to require passport renewal applicants to provide "biological sex at birth," with options limited to "M" and "F", is in violation both of biological fact (many intersex people exist, who are neither "M" nor "F") and established caselaw (Zzyym v. Blinken). Law, science, and justice all require that the "X" gender option be available and respected on passport applications and on passports.