

Author Full Name : Brooke Roecker

Received Date : 02/21/2025 11:51 AM

Comments Received :

I object to the change of limiting gender/sex options to only "M" or "F." While it may be more politically correct at the current time, a legal document such as a passport should not be beholden to political whims. The science is indisputable: there are more than two sexes. Not offering other true options is confusing and misleading at best. While this does not impact me personally, it is insulting to disenfranchise so many people.