

Author Full Name : Ana R

Received Date : 02/21/2025 12:33 PM

Comments Received :

Given that passports are primarily an identification marker, mandating "sex assigned at birth" serves no purpose other than to present barriers to trans individuals attempting to receive this form of ID. As you want to be able to identify the individual at present (hence renewal requirements), the only possible logic for this change is bigotry.