I think the trampling of rights of people who simply want equal rights is abysmal. The scapegoating of a group of people is beyond disgusting and I will use every power available to me to protect the trans lives around me. To deny them the right of self determination on forms is what the real USA was built upon. Freedom from tyranny. Be with pilgrims escaping religious persecution or trans people attempting to escape hate and bigotry from a country they never asked to be born into. In the off chance somebody reads this YOU can make a difference. Resist tyranny by any means possible.
