

Author Full Name : Lauren Todd

Received Date : 02/21/2025 02:05 PM

Comments Received :

The proposed change to request "biological sex at birth, male "M" or female "F"" instead of "gender" is in violation of the Due Process and Equal Protection clauses of the US Constitution. This change will result in denying passports to lawful US citizens based solely on their biological status as intersex or having legally updated the sex on their birth certificate. Legal precedent exists as to the unconstitutionality of such a change (see Zzyym v. Blinkin).