I as a U.S. citizen object to the proposed changes to this process, as the matter of gender in government documents was already settled by the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado in the Zzyym v. Blinken case (formerly Zzyym v. Pompeo, Zzyym v. Tillerson, and Zzyym v. Kerry). Not only does it put undue stress and harm on individuals who have worked hard to change their information to the gender that represents them, but it creates unnecessary paperwork and expense for the State Department which I'm sure has already been downsized by this administration's budget cuts. Furthermore, intersex individuals do medically exist, requiring a nonbinary option to be honest to their sex at birth. Thank you for your time.
