

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 04:00 PM

Comments Received :

It's confusing, unnecessary, dangerous & a waste of time & resources to have people revert to their gender assigned to them at birth, for those who have transitioned to living as a different gender.

There have already been legal rulings protecting & upholding the rights of these individuals to have government issued documents that align with their current gender identities.