

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 04:30 PM

Comments Received :

I would highly encourage the Department of State to reconsider the changes that changes references to gender to sex. The changes will make it more difficult for trans, nonbinary, and gender non-conforming individuals to receive proper identifications. At the end of the day, these are US citizens who deserve to have identification to reflect their chosen name and gender. There is no purpose in adding extra administrative tasks and costs to impose this unnecessary order.