

Author Full Name : Nicole Kaye

Received Date : 02/21/2025 04:26 PM

Comments Received :

The purpose of a passport is to identify the holder. To disallow transgender individuals from stating their actual gender rather than their sex assigned at birth entirely negates that purpose. This is a vindictive, hateful, entirely political move that is not only in opposition to the very concept of individual freedom this country was intended to stand on but makes no practical sense for the purposes of identification. It must not be allowed to stand. Thank you for your time and consideration.