

Author Full Name : E J

Received Date : 02/21/2025 04:55 PM

Comments Received :

The gender identification on an individual's passport should reflect the gender the individual is living as right now. To do otherwise introduces confusion for customs officers, adding needless delays into the customs process, making lines longer and slower at every point of entry in the country - all for no other reason than to harm trans people, who are as deserving of rights and dignity as everyone else.

Like all forms of bigotry, enforced transphobia makes everyone's lives worse.