

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/21/2025 04:53 PMComments Received :

Issuing passports for trans people as their birth gender in essence forces them to out themselves whenever they present their passport. This feels like, basic human decency issues aside, a terrible legal minefield and a waste of everyone's time. For an administration that claims it wants to save money, this one is about to spend a ton of money on lawyers to defend a policy designed to affect 9 out of every 1000 people.