

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 06:11 PM

Comments Received :

The core of liberty is the right to self-definition. If we cannot point to ourselves and say 'this is who I am,' and have other free persons respect that, we are not free. This proposed change is an assault on the very idea of liberty and freedom. As a free country, we should accept and celebrate people exercising their freedoms, however they manifest.