

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/21/2025 08:19 PMComments Received :

With regards to gender designations on passports, I do not see a reason for them to exist at all. Biological sex cannot be determined by visual inspection of a face alone and so adds nothing to the identification process. We should simply stop marking individuals by gender/sex. Other identifying information on a passport is far more important (name, DOB, photograph, etc). When a passport is renewed, gender should be dropped.