

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/21/2025 09:56 PM

Comments Received :

It makes sense to require proof of identity and citizenship status for a passport issued by the government, as well as a photo, but I can't see how a person's genitals current or past has any bearing on anything. This feels like it is also going to be a huge issue for intersex people. Society decided on two genders but nature doesn't follow that, the world is not always evenly split, black and white.