

Author Full Name : Brennan Pitts

Received Date : 02/21/2025 10:01 PM

Comments Received :

The department should not require birth sex instead of gender. Compliance with the executive order should not require that transgender individuals have something other than their identified gender on their passports. This is imperative to uphold the safety and dignity of US citizens at home and abroad