This is a blatantly anti-democratic attack against such a small minority of our populace that it can only be based on animus held by the administration. If we wanna talk about statistics, catholic priests have a SUBSTANTIALLY higher assault-per-capita rate than trans people (read: many vs zero). There is no logical or statistical basis on which these orders are made, just pure hatred. Our federal government, which exists to support EVERY citizen, should not stoop this low, and any career civil servant seeing these actions should take a good hard look at the work they're doing and ask if they're doing it to help or harm. I know that many, if not all, of this administration's appointees gleefully signed up for the latter, and yet I have some completely unmoored hope that ANY of you can stand up for what's right.
