

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/22/2025 06:54 AM

Comments Received :

The denial of passports that accurately reflect the gender identity of the applicant is a disservice to all Americans. Transgender individuals should have the opportunity to travel outside the country for any reason, and no one should have to experience delays in the application process due to a ridiculous witch hunt for a nonthreatening community that makes up less than 1% of the country's total population.