

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/22/2025 11:50 AMComments Received :

I object to the changes proposed to passport applications. It is not up to government to govern people's bodies. The previous application, which acknowledged "Gender" was more accurate than "Sex" was more accurate for a group of marginalized citizens, the trans and non-binary members of the community. While it is clear that the current administration is violently hostile to this group of people, they shall now and forever exist.