

Author Full Name : Florence Moore

Received Date : 02/22/2025 02:21 PM

Comments Received :

The Executive Order will expose many Americans to inappropriate screenings and slower/more invasive security lines. Women in particular that are not transgender but don't fit stereotypical descriptions may be subject to invasive screenings. This process interferes with those of the States that have already enacted Real ID issuance and have established their own processes for establishing gender identifications.