

Author Full Name : Silence Dogood

Received Date : 02/22/2025 03:06 PM

Comments Received :

I am not a liberal, but a policy of having passports that don't match the people they're supposed to identify is both unconstitutional and a security risk. Speech includes one's gender expression. If it becomes general practice for security officers to allow people through who do not match their documents for fear of being protested as unwoke, it will become easier for criminals to travel.