

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/22/2025 04:50 PMComments Received :

The proposed changes will put Americans in danger and cause pointless suffering. Forcing people to use inaccurate or out of date information on their passports puts them at risk while traveling and subjects people to demeaning reviews and assessment while applying for necessary documents. This also may cause additional contradictions between people's state and federal identification documents, causing confusion and undermining the usefulness of passports. Let trans people have the passport that reflects their accurate lived identity.