I believe it is the Right of all who live in the United States and who want to travel to and from the United States to be able to express themselves as they see fit, as it makes them happy. After all it is a constitutional right to pursue happiness and this allows just that. In addition these changes are incredible harsh and extreme, and they will make current systems unable to handle requests where an individual will not fit or if an individual was in the process of changing their identity. For instance, if you changed your name and gender and now need to renew your passport you can't. This would make it nearly impossible for Transgender individuals to travel to and from the US.
