

Author Full Name : Daniel Martin

Received Date : 02/22/2025 08:41 PM

Comments Received :

Concerning how these changes might apply to individuals that would identify themselves as "trans", I disapprove of any changes made to the passport renewal application that would require any additional checks of one's sexual orientation or gender identity.

The only concern of the State Department should be if one has their papers in order, not the identifiers on said paper.