

Author Full Name : Caleb Barge

Received Date : 02/23/2025 05:05 AM

Comments Received :

This issue has been brought to my attention as a change that will require applicants to use their assigned sex at birth. I have a friend who is intersex, so changes like this affect them deeply and create an unnecessary bar for entry. How will this change be handled for people like my friend or with other sexual developmental complications? The world is not so binary and I hope people with complex conditions in relations to sex and gender may be more greatly considered in the future.