

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/23/2025 08:54 AMComments Received :

It is not necessary to request an applicant's assigned sex at birth. It is discrimination based on sex because it will expose transgender people as being transgender due to differences between their appearance and their assigned sex at birth's typical appearance. This specifically endangers transgender US nationals. A person's assigned sex at birth is not vital to their national identification, and therefore it is not necessary to collect this information.