

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/23/2025 11:15 AM

Comments Received :

These changes are blatantly unconstitutional and unenforceable. Transgender people have every right to travel and to non-discriminatory identifying documents as I, a biologically female person, do. Gender markers on passports are irrelevant, and this change would endanger American citizens traveling abroad. The fact that our government is wasting time and resources on this issue when there are far more critical issues to address, such as the economy and supporting our military veterans, is unacceptable.