

Author Full Name : Amy Bisson

Received Date : 02/23/2025 12:02 PM

Comments Received :

I was assigned male at birth and female a few weeks after birth. Then when I was 45 I transitioned to male again, before settling on nonbinary last year, when I was 52. I believe that people's gender on their passports should reflect who they see themselves instead of what the government considers "assigned at birth".