

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/23/2025 12:35 PM

Comments Received :

I object to limiting sex/gender markers to M/F “assigned at birth”. There are many intersex and transgender individuals for whom these options do not work; these individuals would be forced to travel with an M or F marker that doesn’t match their current appearance, potentially leading to unnecessary delays when traveling. Having an X marker is acceptable according to the same sources cited in the proposed change and should continue to be an option for travelers.