

Author Full Name : Iggy Montgomery

Received Date : 02/23/2025 02:17 PM

Comments Received :

Requiring passports to only provide M or F as sex markers erases the existence of intersex individuals who genetically do not fit into either category of male or female, making it unnecessarily difficult for them to travel freely. This also harms transgender or gender nonconforming individuals who do not look like their assigned sex at birth at all. M or F sex provides little information, if any at all, to identify an individual.