

Author Full Name : Iggy Montgomery

Received Date : 02/23/2025 02:35 PM

Comments Received :

Changing the usage of the term gender to sex will not protect anyone. It will cause further confusion toward the identification of individuals which will make airports function less efficiently. TSA already performs pat downs on individuals who are gender nonconforming. There does not need to be more restrictions placed upon people who simply look different than what Trump deems "normal."

Changing gender to sex will not stop the existence of transgender individuals.