

Author Full Name : Nathan H

Received Date : 02/23/2025 10:48 PM

Comments Received :

I strongly oppose the proposal that would require all US passport holders to use a male or female gender marker based on their sex assigned at birth. This act would discriminate against trans people and those whose identity does not fit the standard male/female binary. Furthermore, it is counterproductive for purposes of identification as a trans person's appearance may not even remotely resemble their sex assigned at birth.