

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/23/2025 11:50 PMComments Received :

The proposed M/F sex marker restrictions discriminates against trans and intersex people, violates what should be a right to privacy, and is unnecessary for identification as the photo provides enough proof. A sex marker not matching a person's gender appearance could a) out and endanger trans people, and b) confuse enforcement as to whether it's a falsified ID or not. I oppose this proposed restriction and will take it into account next election.