

Author Full Name : noneReceived Date : 02/24/2025 10:17 AMComments Received :

The proposal to require gender markers matching birth certificates are discriminatory to transgender individuals. This rule endangers transgender individuals when exercising their right to travel, especially when their physical manifestation does not match their birth-assigned gender. This proposal is simple discrimination and cruelty. This proposal affects a VERY SMALL number of people, in a VERY LARGE and HARMFUL way, infringing their rights of freedom of expression, and their rights to privacy and equal protection under the Constitution.