

Author Full Name : Abigail Goff

Received Date : 02/24/2025 11:33 AM

Comments Received :

I think this change is highly discriminatory towards intersex and trans individuals. Furthermore, I don't think this accomplishes anything useful. You don't need to know anything about a person's genitalia to be able identify the person standing in front of you with a photo. This is needlessly ideological, and doesn't take seriously security concerns.