

Author Full Name : Arne Dietrich

Received Date : 02/24/2025 11:47 AM

Comments Received :

Please do not go ahead with those changes.

The primary purpose of a passport is to confirm the identity of the holder, and not to define it. Incorrect markings on the passport, showing no longer valid gender representation, will make passports less fit for their purpose.

The comment above is separate from the despicable ideology of the current government or the fascist process of suppressing marginalized groups.