

Author Full Name : Eliza RoseReceived Date : 02/24/2025 12:39 PMComments Received :

This proposal is in violation of the order issued by US District Court of Colorado in Zzyym v. Blinken (attached below), which remands the Department of State to issue passports with the third gender marker X as recognized by the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO). Passage of this proposal is a failure to comply with a federal district court, which has jurisdiction over all laws of congress & orders of the executive as established by Article III Section 2 of the Constitution of the United States.

A violation of the order in order to comply with the mentioned executive order is a violation of the Constitution of the United States, a breach of the oath of the Office of the Secretary of State & a violation of federal law.