

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/24/2025 05:24 PM

Comments Received :

I am commenting to urge the Department of State to halt this unnecessary change to the passport application process. The cited Executive Order is being challenged in court and should not be dictating these extreme changes to our passport issuing system without being settled in court. This creates unnecessary paperwork and expends federal employee time and taxpayer dollars on something that has not been settled.