

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/24/2025 06:00 PMComments Received :

I am horrified by the assault on transgender Americans that the federal government is engaging in. Transgender Americans are our friends, neighbors, family members coworkers, and they are loved and valued. They deserve to have documentation that is official that matches their known gender identity. The justification for matching documentation is grounded in science. The justification for the federal government's position in this moment is rooted purely in politics and bigotry.