

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/25/2025 12:37 AM

Comments Received :

US citizens deserve the right to have documents that reflect their legal name and correct gender marker. Only allowing for "M" and "F" markers on passports forces citizens to declare a gender that may be incorrect for them. As a matter of personal dignity and autonomy, citizens should be allowed to update their passport name, gender marker, and to not have passports in which the fields were updated be invalidated.