

Author Full Name : Rachel Colby

Received Date : 02/24/2025 11:43 PM

Comments Received :

I am writing to object to updating the form to replace the term “gender” with “sex.” The proposed information collection is not necessary for the proper functions of the Department. There is no need to know the assigned sex at birth of someone applying for a passport; simply their gender identity is sufficient. Demanding this information also increases the reporting burden on those whose gender does not match their assigned sex at birth.